Yearly Safety Winners 1-4

Service Awards 4-7

Thank you all for coming to our Annual Safety Night. We appreciate all of your hard work , dedication and prioritizing safety every day. Please enjoy our safety edition newsletter that highlights on our winners for the year.

Safety Winners

Laborer of the Year is Carlos Ayala

Carlos has been a great addition to the Anderson team. He started his career by working with Doug Huss on multiple jobs and learned a lot from him. During the last year he mostly worked in the Alexandria area and really stepped up by running the day to day operations when the Superintendent was not available. His future is bright and he is studying to obtain his degree in Construction Management.

Operator of the Year is Carter Richardson

Carter Richardson earned this award because of his ability to help lead others in the last year. He stepped up on numerous jobs to lend a hand to Supervision and help guide them through various utility cuts and loading trucks.

Driver of the Year is Alfredo Cerroblanco

Alfredo Cerroblanco is a repeat winner of this award and helps to bring stability to our driver force. He has driven many miles throughout the DC Metro area and does it without incident or violation.

Service Employee of the Year is Edward Hysmith (Spike)

Edward Hysmith (Spike) earned this award because of his constant dedication to keeping not only our vehicles up and running but the equipment as well. Spike works behind the scenes at night when all the equipment returns to the shop. His commitment to safety when no one is watching is unmatched.

Superintendent of the Year is Gustavo Sosa

Gustavo Sosa was awarded the Superintendent of the Year for his outstanding safety performance while overseeing multiple jobs throughout the year. He worked at Citizen M, Chevy Chase and other jobs and kept his sites neat and clean. He has performed extremely well since becoming a Superintendent and his dedication to safety is outstanding.
